

MISS MARION#. REPP, a witness of lawful age, produced on the part of the plaintiff, having been duly affirmed, deposes and says: Examination by Mr. Buckey:
State your name and your knowledge of this case?

My name is Marion#. Repp. I am over twenty-one years of age, and I am a daughter of Mr. Samuel F. Repp and wife, two of the plaintiffs in this cause. I knew Rachel J. Grossnickle Garber for many years prior to her death, which occurred on the 25th day of May, 1939, intestate, as she left no will that I have heard of.

She left surviving her, her husband, George W. Garber, whom she married after the property mentioned in Exhibit No. 1 filed in this cause was conveyed to her; the said George W. Garber, her last husband, is also dead, having died on the 7th day of June, 1939, and he left a last will and testament. I look at the paper now shown me and it is a certified copy of said will, marked Exhibit No. 2.

Mrs. Rachel J. Grossnickle Garber's husband prior to Mr. Garber was named Grossnickle, so that was her name at the time the real estate in this cause was deeded to her.

Rachel J. Grossnickle Garber died, as I have stated, intestate, and at the time of her death she was seized and possessed of the property described in Exhibit No. 1 in this cause. I look at said Exhibit and I think it correctly describes the property. This property consists of a two and one-half story house and other outbuildings, and there is a garage fronting on it that is rented to Mr. Snyder, and according to this Exhibit the property contains about an acre and a half of land. This property is worth about $/200.00

Rachel J. Grossnickle Garber left no child or children or descendants of any child or children, but left two brothers and a sister and a number of nephews and nieces and their descendants. Her husband, as I have stated, survived her, and died on June 7, 1939. State all the heirs of Rachael J. Garber?

Her heirs at law and next of kin entitled to interest in said
